

Notice of Privacy Practices

WELL CARE, LLC, INC.
WELL CARE HOME HEALTH
WELL CARE HOME HEALTH OF THE TRIANGLE
WELL CARE HOME CARE
Effective: April 14, 2003

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED
AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.
PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This notice will tell you how we may use and disclose protected health information about you. Protected health information means any health information about you that identifies you or for which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify you. In this notice, we call all of that protected health information, “medical information.”

This notice also will tell you about your rights and our duties with respect to medical information about you. In addition, it will tell you how to complain to us if you believe we have violated your privacy rights.

Who Is Bound By This Notice?

This Notice of Privacy Practices describes the practices of WELL CARE, LLC as well as of Well Care Home Health and Well Care Home Care.

This notice applies to the following delivery sites: the home office in New Hanover county as well as the offices in Brunswick, Columbus and Pender counties.

We all will follow what is said in this Notice.

How We May Use and Disclose Medical Information About You.

We will share medical information about you with each other as necessary to carry out treatment, payment, or our health care operations.

We use and disclose medical information about you for a number of different purposes. Each of those purposes is described below.

- For Treatment.

We may use medical information about you to provide, coordinate or manage your health care and related services by both us and other health care providers. We may disclose medical information about you to doctors, nurses, hospitals and other health facilities that become involved in your care. We may consult with other health care providers concerning you and as part of the consultation share your medical information with them. Similarly, we may refer you to another health care provider and as part of the referral share medical information about you with that provider. For example, we may conclude you need to receive services from a physician with a particular specialty. When we refer you to that physician, we also will contact that physician's office and provide medical information about you to them so they have information they need to provide services for you

- For Payment.

We may use and disclose medical information about you so we can be paid for the services we provide to you. This can include billing you, your insurance company, or a third party payor. For example, we may need to give your insurance company information about the health care services we provide to you so your insurance company will pay us for those services or reimburse you for amounts you have paid. We also may need to provide your insurance company or a government program, such as Medicare or Medicaid, with information about your medical condition and the health care you need to receive to obtain determine if you are covered by that insurance or program.

- For Health Care Operations.

We may use and disclose medical information about you for our own health care operations. These are necessary for us to operate WELL CARE, LLC and to maintain quality health care for our patients. For example, we may use medical information about you to review the services we provide and the performance of our employees in caring for you. We may disclose medical information about you to train our staff, volunteers and students working in WELL CARE, LLC. We also may use the information to study ways to more efficiently manage our organization.

- How We Will Contact You.

Unless you tell us otherwise in writing, we may contact you by either telephone or by mail at either your home or your workplace. At either location, we may leave messages for you on the answering machine or voice mail.

If you want to request that we communicate to you in a certain way or at a certain location, see "Right to Receive Confidential Communications" on page 6 of this Notice.

- Appointment Reminders.

We may use and disclose medical information about you to contact you to remind you of an appointment you have with us.

- Treatment Alternatives

We may use and disclose medical information about you to contact you about treatment alternatives that may be of interest to you.

- Health Related Benefits and Services.

We may use and disclose medical information about you to contact you about health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

- Marketing Communications.

We may use and disclose medical information about you to communicate with you about a product or service to encourage you to purchase the product or service. This may be:

- To describe a health-related product or service that is provided by us;
- For your treatment;
- For case management or care coordination for you;
- To direct or recommend alternative treatments, therapies, health care providers, or settings of care.

We may communicate to you about products and services in a face-to-face communication by us to you. We also may communicate about products or services in the form of a promotional gift of nominal value.

All other use and disclosure of medical information about you by us to make a communication about a product or service to encourage the purchase or use of a product or service will be done only with your written authorization.

- Individuals involved in your care.

We may disclose to a family member, other relative, a close personal friend, or any other person identified by you, medical information about you that is directly relevant to that person's involvement with your care or payment related to your care. We also may use or disclose medical information about you to notify, or assist in notifying, those persons of your location, general condition, or death. If there is a family member, other relative, or close personal friend that you do not want us to disclose medical information about you to, please notify Privacy Officer or tell our staff member who is providing care to you.

- Disaster Relief.

We may use or disclose medical information about you to a public or private entity authorized by law or by its charter to assist in disaster relief efforts. This will be done to coordinate with those entities in notifying a family member, other relative, close personal friend, or other person identified by you of your location, general condition or death.

- Required by Law.

We may use or disclose medical information about you when we are required to do so by law.

- Public Health Activities.

We may disclose medical information about you for public health activities and purposes. This includes reporting medical information to a public health authority that is authorized by law to collect or receive the information for purposes of preventing or controlling disease. It also includes reporting for purposes of activities related to the quality, safety or effectiveness of a United States Food and Drug administration regulated product or activity.

- Victims of Abuse, Neglect or Domestic Violence.

We may disclose medical information about you to a government authority authorized by law to receive reports of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence, if we believe you are a victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence. This will occur to the extent the disclosure is: (a) required by law; (b) agreed to by you; or, (c) authorized by law and we believe the disclosure is necessary to prevent serious harm to you or to other potential victims, or, if you are incapacitated and certain other conditions are met, a law enforcement or other public official represents that immediate enforcement activity depends on the disclosure.

- Health Oversight Activities.

We may disclose medical information about you to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law, including audits, investigations, inspections, licensure or disciplinary actions. These and similar types of activities are necessary for appropriate oversight of the health care system, government benefit programs, and entities subject to various government regulations. However, disclosure of medical information about you to the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services, as part of an inspection to determine if we comply with licensure requirements, will not occur if you object to that disclosure of your medical information

- Judicial and Administrative Proceedings.

We may disclose medical information about you in the course of any judicial or administrative proceeding in response to an order of the court or administrative tribunal. We also may disclose medical information about you in response to a subpoena, discovery request, or other legal process but only if efforts have been made to tell you about the request or to obtain an order protecting the information to be disclosed.

- Disclosures for Law Enforcement Purposes.

We may disclose medical information about you to a law enforcement official for law enforcement purposes:

- a. As required by law.
- b. In response to a court, grand jury or administrative order, warrant or subpoena.
- c. To identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness or missing person.
- d. About an actual or suspected victim of a crime and that person agrees to the disclosure. If we are unable to obtain that person's agreement, in limited circumstances, the information may still be disclosed.
- e. To alert law enforcement officials to a death if we suspect the death may have resulted from criminal conduct.
- f. About crimes that occur at our facility.
- g. To report a crime in emergency circumstances.

- Coroners and Medical Examiners.

We may disclose medical information about you to a coroner or medical examiner for purposes such as identifying deceased person and determining cause of death.

- Funeral Directors.

We may disclose medical information about you to funeral directors as necessary for them to carry out their duties.

- Organ, Eye or Tissue Donation.

To facilitate organ, eye or tissue donation and transplantation, we may disclose medical information about you to organ procurement organizations or other entities engaged in the procurement, banking or transplantation of organs, eyes or tissue.

- To Avert Serious Threat to Health or Safety.

We may use or disclose protected health information about you if we believe the use or disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious or imminent threat to the health or safety of a person or the public. We also may release information about you if we believe the disclosure is necessary for law enforcement authorities to identify or apprehend an individual who admitted participation in a violent crime or who is an escapee from a correctional institution or from lawful custody.

- Military.

If you are a member of the Armed Forces, we may use and disclose medical information about you for activities deemed necessary by the appropriate military command authorities to assure the proper execution of the military mission. We may also release information about foreign military personnel to the appropriate foreign military authority for the same purposes.

- National Security and Intelligence

We may disclose medical information about you to authorized federal officials for the conduct of intelligence, counter-intelligence, and other national security activities authorized by law.

- Protective Services for the President.

We may disclose medical information about you to authorized federal officials so they can provide protection to the President of the United States, certain other federal officials, or foreign heads of state.

- Inmates; Persons in Custody.

We may disclose medical information about you to a correctional institution or law enforcement official having custody of you. The disclosure will be made if the disclosure is necessary: (a) to provide health care to you; (b) for the health and safety of others; or, (c) the safety, security and good order of the correctional institution.

- Workers Compensation.

We may disclose medical information about you to the extent necessary to comply with workers' compensation and similar laws that provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness without regard to fault.

- Other Uses and Disclosures.

Other uses and disclosures will be made only with your written authorization. You may revoke such an authorization at any time by notifying the Privacy Officer of Well Care 6752 Parker Farm Drive, Suite 200, Wilmington, NC 28405 in writing of your desire to revoke it. However, if you revoke such an authorization, it will not have any affect on actions taken by us in reliance on it.

Your Rights With Respect to Medical Information About You.

You have the following rights with respect to medical information that we maintain about you.

- Right to Request Restrictions.

You have the right to request that we restrict the uses or disclosures of medical information about you to carry out treatment, payment, or health care operations. You also have the right to request that we restrict the uses or disclosures we make to: (a) a family member, other relative, a close personal friend or any other person identified by you; or, (b) for to public or private entities for disaster relief efforts. For example, you could ask that we not disclose medical information about you to your brother or sister.

To request a restriction, you may do so at any time. If you request a restriction, you should do so to the Privacy Officer of Well Care 6752 Parker Farm Drive, Suite 200, Wilmington, NC 28405 and tell us: (a) what information you want to limit; (b) whether you want to limit use or disclosure or both; and, (c) to whom you want the limits to apply (for example, disclosures to your spouse).

We are not required to agree to any requested restriction. However, if we do agree, we will follow that restriction unless the information is needed to provide emergency treatment. Even if we agree to a restriction, either you or we can later terminate the restriction.

- Right to Receive Confidential Communications.

You have the right to request that we communicate medical information about you to you in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that we only contact you by mail or at work. We will not require you to tell us why you are asking for the confidential communication.

If you want to request confidential communication, you must do so in writing to the Privacy Officer of Well Care 6752 Parker Farm Drive, Suite 200, Wilmington, NC 28405. Your request must state how or where you can be contacted.

We will accommodate your request. However, we may, when appropriate, require information from you concerning how payment will be handled. We also may require an alternate address or other method to contact you.

- Right to Inspect and Copy.

With a few very limited exceptions, such as psychotherapy notes, you have the right to inspect and obtain a copy of medical information about you. To inspect or copy medical information about you, you must submit your request in writing to the Medical Records Supervisor of Well Care 6752 Parker Farm Drive, Suite 200, Wilmington, NC 28405. Your request should state specifically what medical information you want to inspect or copy.

If you request a copy of the information, we may charge a fee for the costs of copying and, if you ask that it be mailed to you, the cost of mailing.

We will act on your request within thirty (30) calendar days after we receive your request. If we grant your request, in whole or in part, we will inform you of our acceptance of your request and provide access and copies.

We may deny your request to inspect and copy medical information if the medical information involved is:

Information compiled in anticipation of, or use in, a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding;

If we deny your request, we will inform you of the basis for the denial, how you may have our denial reviewed, and how you may complain. If you request a review of our denial, it will be conducted by a licensed health care professional designated by us who was not directly involved in the denial. We will comply with the outcome of that review.

- Right to Amend.

You have the right to ask us to amend medical information about you. You have this right for so long as we maintain the medical information.

To request an amendment, you must submit your request in writing to the Privacy Officer of Well Care 6752 Parker Farm Drive, Suite 200, Wilmington, NC 28405. Your request must state the amendment desired and provide a reason in support of that amendment.

We will act on your request within sixty (60) calendar days after we receive your request. If we grant your request, in whole or in part, we will inform you of our acceptance of your request and provide access and copying.

If we grant the request, in whole or in part, we will seek your identification of and agreement to share the amendment with relevant other persons. We also will make the appropriate amendment to the medical information by appending or otherwise providing a link to the amendment.

We may deny your request to amend medical information about you. We may deny your request if it is not in writing and does not provide a reason in support of the amendment. In addition, we may deny your request to amend medical information if we determine that the information:

- a. Was not created by us, unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to act on the requested amendment;
- b. Is not part of the medical information maintained by us;
- c. Would not be available for you to inspect or copy; or,
- d. Is accurate and complete.

If we deny your request, we will inform you of the basis for the denial. You will have the right to submit a statement of disagreeing with our denial. Your statement may not exceed 2 pages. We may prepare a rebuttal to that statement. Your request for amendment, our denial of the request, your statement of disagreement, if any, and our rebuttal, if any, will then be appended to the medical information involved or otherwise linked to it. All of that will then be included with any subsequent disclosure of the information, or, at our election, we may include a summary of any of that information.

If you do not submit a statement of disagreement, you may ask that we include your request for amendment and our denial with any future disclosures of the information. We will include your request for amendment and our denial (or a summary of that information) with any subsequent disclosure of the medical information involved.

You also will have the right to complain about our denial of your request.

- Right to an Accounting of Disclosures.

You have the right to receive an accounting of disclosures of medical information about you. The accounting may be for up to six (6) years prior to the date on which you request the accounting.

Certain types of disclosures are not included in such an accounting:

- a) Disclosures to carry out treatment, payment and health care operations;
- b) Disclosures of your medical information made to you;
- c) Disclosures that are incident to another use or disclosure;
- d) Disclosures that you have authorized;
- e) Disclosures for disaster relief purposes;
- f) Disclosures for national security or intelligence purposes;
- g) Disclosures to correctional institutions or law enforcement officials having custody of you;
- h) Disclosures that are part of a limited data set for purposes of research, public health, or health care operations (a limited data set is where things that would directly identify you have been removed).

Under certain circumstances your right to an accounting of disclosures to a law enforcement official or a health oversight agency may be suspended. Should you request an accounting during the period of time your right is suspended; the accounting would not include the disclosure or disclosures to a law enforcement official or to a health oversight agency.

To request an accounting of disclosures, you must submit your request in writing to the Privacy Officer of Well Care 6752 Parker Farm Drive, Suite 200, Wilmington, NC 28405. Your request must state a time period for the disclosures. It may not be longer than six (6) years from the date we receive your request.

Usually, we will act on your request within sixty (60) calendar days after we receive your request. Within that time, we will either provide the accounting of disclosures to you or give you a written statement of when we will provide the accounting and why the delay is necessary.

There is no charge for the first accounting we provide to you in any twelve (12) month period. For additional accountings, we may charge you for the cost of providing the list. If there will be a charge, we will notify you of the cost involved and give you an opportunity to withdraw or modify your request to avoid or reduce the fee.

Client Records and Information Management

Confidentiality

Agency staff knows that you have a right to privacy. We limit access to your medical records. There are times, however, when we need to share information about your health with other people involved in your care. When you sign our admission agreement, you are giving us permission to:

- Release information to Medicaid, Medicare or any other third party, for the use in determining home health benefits payable to me.
- Get information from any health care facility where you have been a patient.
- Release information to your physician and to staff of other service agencies.
- Release of medical and other related information to social/health care agencies and medical equipment vendors whose services may be required in conjunction with the services provided by home health.
- Release of information as necessary for an ethical consult, if a consult is requested during the course of care provided by Well Care Home Health.

The following people may see your medical records:

- Home health staff and contractors providing services to you.
- Home Health Ethics Committee members who may be asked to review ethical problems related to your care.
- Well Care staff processing physician's orders and billing.
- Division of Facility Service staff, evaluating the agency to make sure patient care is being provided according to Medicare standards.
- Surveyors evaluating the agency to make sure staff regulations and quality standards are met.
- Health care workers reviewing our clinical records.
- Students enrolled in health care training programs.

These people are aware of the importance of keeping your medical records confidential. Information will not be given to other people without your written permission.

- PHI is not used or disclosed for marketing, selling PHI, and use or disclosure of psychotherapy notes, advertisement, and genetics.
- Well Care will inform the patient with a breach in HIPAA
- Well Care is compliant with HITECH ACT minimum standards as it applies to HIPAA regulations.

This is a Medicare and Medicaid Approved Notice

Home Health Agency* Outcome and Assessment Information Set (OASIS) Statement of Privacy Rights (Medicare/Medicaid)

As a home health patient, you have the privacy rights listed below:

You have the right to know why we need to ask you questions. We are required by law to collect health information to make sure:

- 1) You get quality health care, and
- 2) Payment for Medicare and Medicaid patients is correct.

You have the right to have your personal health care information kept confidential.

- 1) You may be asked to tell us information about yourself so that we will know which Home Care will be best for you.
- 2) We keep anything we learn about you confidential.
- 3) This means, only those who are legally authorized to know, or who have a medical need to know, will see your personal health information.

You have the right to refuse to answer questions.

- 1) We may need your help in collecting your health information.
- 2) If you choose not to answer, we will fill in the information as best we can.
- 3) You do not have to answer every question to get services.

You have the right to look at your personal health information.

- 1) We know how important it is that the information we collect about you is correct.
- 2) If you think we made a mistake, ask us to correct it.
- 3) If you are not satisfied with our response, you can ask the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services.
- 4) Administration, the federal Medicare and Medicaid agency, to correct your information.

The Client can ask the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services to see, review, copy, or correct personal health information, which that Federal agency maintains in its HHA OASIS System of Records.

Notice about Privacy

For Patients Who Do Not Have Medicare or Medicaid Coverage. As a home health patient, there are a few things Clients need to know about our collection of Client personal health care information.

- Federal and State governments oversee home health care to be sure that the agency furnishes quality Home Care, and that the Client, in particular, gets quality home health care services.
- The agency staff will need to ask the Client questions because we are required by law to collect health information to make sure that the Client gets quality health care services.
- The agency will make information anonymous. That way, the Health Care Financing Administration, the Federal agency that oversees Well Care Home Health, cannot know that the information is about the Client.
- The agency will keep anything learned about the Client confidential.

Contact Information

If you want to ask the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services to see, review, copy or correct your personal information, which that Federal agency maintains in its HHA OASIS System of Records:

- Call 1-800-638-6833; toll free, for assistance in contacting the HHA OASIS System Manager.
- TTY for the hearing and speech impaired: 1-800-820-1202

Medicare and Your Rights

You have guaranteed rights and protections as a person with traditional, fee-for-service Medicare coverage. Please become familiar with the following facts.

If you are receiving care from a comprehensive outpatient rehabilitation facility, home health agency, hospice, or skilled nursing facility, and you are told care is no longer needed and will no longer be covered by Medicare, you will receive an advance notice called Notice of Medicare Provider Non-Coverage at least two days before the services being provided are to no end.

If you don't agree that Medicare should stop covering your care, the notice explains how you can request another opinion.

To request another opinion, call
1-800-MEDICARE
(1-800-633-4227)
TTY/TTD 1-877-486-2048

or your state's Medicare Quality Improvement Organization (this number will be listed on the notice you receive).

When you ask for another opinion, your Medicare Quality Improvement Organization will review your case to determine if Medicare will continue to pay for your care.

Please be sure to share this information with your family.
